

GENERAL BOARD MEETING

January 26, 2019

(Open attendance)

DISCUSSIONS:

Barbara – President:

- New website will be launching so watch for that, will be sending out information to members on login setup
- Please take a moment to go over the privacy policy
- Will have other meetings in the next couple months to talk about the site and to get to know its functionality.
- Little Red has closed its registration and the lottery is full
- Utah bike summit is March 5th
- The banquet this year has a new location downtown at Zions Banks, information is on the website
- Set your goals now for the upcoming riding season
- Would like to see the club be more active in volunteering in the community
- Anyone is welcome to attend a board meeting please just give advance notice

Iris Buder Jensen – Treasurer:

- Met with Barbara to create the operating budgets for this year, the bulk of our income comes from Little Red
- Banquet is February 9th with a new venue and new caterer
- Will be displaying next year's jerseys at the banquet hoping it will be an incentive

Jackie McGill – Vice President:

- Created BCC posters to be distributed around to different bike shops and recreation centers

Liesa Sandall – Membership & Statistics:

- Keep an eye out when your membership expires and send it in

Stacy Walker – Secretary:

- Passed out BCC business cards to members and ride leaders who requested some

Rexanne Pond – Membership at large:

- Volunteer hours have not been uploaded yet to the new website but is still collecting the information for when we can
- If anyone knows of any volunteer opportunities please email information

Kate Sturgeon – Webmaster:

- A lot of time and effort has gone into the new website. It will be a work in progress

Bob Schultz – Road Captain:

- A2Z will start right after the meeting, if you can't stay there will be one in February and one in March
- Once the new website launches and you have any ride leader questions please let me know and I will work with you to get you down the right path
- If you don't get your ride leader training in by the end of March you won't be able to lead a ride until there is another training section
- The first series ride will be the Winter escape in March in St. George
- Have been meeting with the Randonneurs Cycling Club who will be posting rides on our calendar to give our members a chance to do longer rides this year. You don't have to be a member to do the ride you just have to pay a $5 fee

Members:

- Little Red will let you transfer your registration up to April 1st
- Is there a way to store all the pictures the club has from flickr which will no longer be free, the board will discuss this as Flickr will be deleting photos
- Need to make a presence with MS since Don Williams is no longer handling this, someone on the board needs to step into the arena if we want to move forward with the MS ride will discuss this at the February board meeting

* Next board meeting is scheduled at Bob Schultz house on February 22nd at 6:00 pm
